

EVER WISH GRADUATE SCHOOLS HAD GUIDANCE COUNSELORS?

Navigating graduate school and getting a job in academia can be overwhelming. The Institute for Humane Studies offers a variety of programs to help students passionate about the principles of a free society complete their degrees and advance their careers.

Scholarships & Fellowships

Scholarships of up to $12,000, summer writing fellowships, and grants to present at academic conferences.

Career Development & Mentoring

Career workshops to develop interviewing, publishing, and public speaking skills.

Networking & Resources

Receptions at professional conferences throughout the year. An online directory of jobs, internships, and contests, plus opportunities to find research partners or submit work for review.

Interdisciplinary Conferences

Conferences exploring historical and contemporary issues from a classical liberal perspective. Examine society, academia, the future, and leading research agendas of our time.
